Your Levy at Work

This fact sheet outlines different assistance measures available to Tasmanian dairy producers in the aftermath of June 2016 Floods.

If my property has been affected what should I be doing?

- Try to focus on your priorities by writing a quick checklist of all the jobs that come to mind – classifying them by what needs to be done today, this week and later in the month. Download your Dairy Australia 'recovery priority list' here.
- Take photos of the damage on your property to build up an inventory of losses (i.e. pumps, fencing, feed, etc).
- DairyTas are currently assisting with damage reports on behalf of affected dairy producers to provide to the State Government. Accurate and timely information will help secure the best possible level of disaster assistance. If you have not already been contacted, report any damage to DairyTas via (03) 6432 2233.
- Keep all your receipts associated with recovery efforts.
- Remember to ask for help.

Where can I direct people who want to help/volunteer?

At this point there's no formal call for volunteers. Only trained emergency services workers are out braving the weather to keep us safe. The best way for concerned citizens to help is by:

- Calling the Farm Assistance Hotline 6777 2233. A central register of offers of practical assistance e.g. machinery, fodder etc. and for those needing support to identify needs.
- Donating to Rural Relief Fund via www.ruralbusiness Tasmania.org.au or 1300 883 276

Extra help for Dairy Farmers who have lost stock. Some dairy farmers have expressed a wish to help those who have lost cows in the floods. With the help of Elders and Greenhams you can donate part or all of the proceeds from cull cow sales made to Greenhams.

These funds will be sent through to the RBT Rural Relief Fund – Dairy Stock Replacement and will be allocated just to those dairy farmers who have stock losses. Please advise your livestock agent or Greenhams if you wish to donate.

Blazeaid Support on Fencing They provide volunteer labour and tools to replace fencing (they have 20 trailers of equipment on their way to Tasmania). Farmers need to: Identify their most urgent fencing needs, clear fencelines (Blazeaid do not have the heavy equipment available to do this), have available all fencing materials – wire, posts etc. - Register with Blazeaid (indicating if they have materials ready to go)
